Enter the magical world of Helavala, where war is brewing between two of its northern kingdoms. King Eadwig orders the destruction of the village of Talara and everyone in it, but there is one survivor, sixteen year old Aurora Talvin. Upon seeing that Aurora is a witch, Eadwig allows her to live and brings her back to his kingdom of Odal. Two years later, Aurora finally decides to take her revenge upon Eadwig. On the wedding day of Eadwig's daughter Odelia and Idris, the prince of Aemlus, Aurora disrupts the ceremony and kills Eadwig in a gruesome way for all to see, and names herself queen of Odal. Promising to avenge her father, Odelia teams up with prince Idris to take her kingdom back. The princess of Aemlus, Eiria, has secrets of her own, and ends up right in the middle of the conflict. Even though Odelia has the kingdom of Aemlus behind her, Aurora's powers are strong, and she is not alone. An incredible being stands at her side: a faerie named Lumina, who promises to protect Aurora and has the fearsome power to do so.
